Pennsylvania Tour Highlights

Our tour begins in Philadelphia Friday, March 11. Plan to arrive at the hotel by 5 PM. Our welcome meal and orientation is at 5:30 PM.

Transportation from Philadelphia Airport is easy. Shuttle and taxi information will be given to you before you travel so you can easily make this transfer. The airport is less than 7 miles from our hotel.

During our weekend stay in Philadelphia, we'll explore the diversity of this historic city with a guided trolley tour and a two-day on / off pass to use through out the weekend. Enjoy the world famous Reading Terminal Market for lunch. Enjoy the city sites with its many museums, outdoor sculptures, art works and many murals. Philadelphia offers world class shopping.

Stroll America's most historic square mile, Independence National Park, with more than 20 landmarks open to the public, the Liberty Bell, Independence Hall, the new Constitution Center, the Franklin Post Office, and the Betsy Ross' house.

We are in luck this year with the 2011 Philadelphia International Flower Show, the oldest in USA being held the weekend we are in Philadelphia! We've included a ticket for you to enjoy this beautiful show: "Springtime in Paris"!

7-Day Tour begins Sunday, March 13

Plan to arrive at the hotel by 5 PM for our group evening meal.

On Monday we'll depart Philadelphia and travel to Lancaster County for the remainder of our tour. Travel through the Brandywine River Valley with its unique stone houses and historic Revolutionary War battlefields, through rolling hills of rich farmland to the charming village of Leola, our home for the next 6 nights. The Village Inn has a 4-Diamond rating and our accommodations are very comfortable European-style suites with King and Queen beds, as well as “mini suites”- large oversize rooms without the separate rooms of a suite, also with King and Queen beds.

Our days together will include, in addition to sightseeing, great fabric shopping opportunities in many of the area’s fabric shops, which are just bursting with thousands of bolts and tempting low prices. Each evening we’ll gathering in our hotel meeting room and enjoy the company!

Learn about the Amish history and culture with a guided tour of the Amish countryside. Sample Amish baked goods, as well as crafts and of course, fabric in the village of Intercourse. You can shop where the Amish shop at Zook’s Dry Goods and visit the Old Country Store, voted one of the 10 best quilt shops in the USA. End the day with a home cooked meal and a memorable visit with an Old Order Amish family in their home.

Enjoy beautiful quilts at the new American Quilter’s Society quilt show at the new Convention Center in Lancaster City. With your 2-day Show Admission, there will be lots of quilts to see and many vendors to tempt you! You’ll have time to explore historic Lancaster City just steps from the Convention Center and see vintage Amish quilts at the Lancaster Quilt Museum. Enjoy a Saturday outing to the Chocolate city of Hershey Pennsylvania.

Sunday March 20: Our last day together includes a relaxing visit to beautiful Longwood Gardens, one of the world’s great gardens. This country estate garden of Pierre S. du Pont is a celebration of horticulture at its finest. It's a great way to end our trip before heading to the airport for the flight home.

Our Tour Bus departs from Longwood Gardens for the airport at 2:30 PM and should arrive at the airport by 3:30PM or a bit earlier. If your flight is earlier you can arrange to take a private shuttle to the airport from Longwood Gardens. We will arrive at Longwood Gardens at 10 AM.

Please note:

Tour is based on a minimum of 20 participants. Tour price may be subject to change due to increased taxes, and / or fuel surcharges. In the event the number of participants is below 20, an additional payment of not more than 5% of tour price may be necessary to prevent cancellation of tour.

You will be notified if this additional charge is necessary. This increase will be reflected as a separate payment to you after the last scheduled payment.

Our tours involve a moderate amount of walking and participants should be in good health and comfortable with walking. QUILT VENTURES cannot provide special assistance to tour members with special needs for walking, special meals, or other routine activities.

Our itinerary is subject to variation if conditions beyond our control necessitate changes. We reserve the right to vary itineraries and substitute the best alternatives.
